A lasting gift to keep us all connected

Why write a will?

Writing a will gives you the assurance that your estate and the assets you leave behind will be managed properly when you pass away. It guarantees that your loved ones and the causes you hold most dear can receive the gifts and inheritance you have entitled them to.

Don't know where to start? Follow these four easy steps to begin making your Will.

1 Find a solicitor nearby

Contacting a local solicitor may be the easiest way to draft or update your Will. Search 'Law Society' online, go to solicitors.lawsociety.org.uk or call: 020 7320 5650.

3 Consider supporting causes you love

After considering your loved ones, you may also want to support causes that matter to you. If this includes us - thank you.

2 Appoint your executors

These executors will carry out the instructions of your Will and can be family, friends, legal advisers.

4 Make a copy of your Will

Please also make sure someone knows where the original is kept. Your legal adviser will often store it for free, or you can use the Probate Registry or National Wills Register.
